

Sermon Outline: "Look What God Has Done" - Pastor Wes

I. Introduction

- Opening with the scriptural narrative of the empty tomb (Luke 24).

II. The Significance of the Resurrection

- The resurrection as a central event in human history.
- Emphasizes the transformational power of the resurrection for personal faith.

III. Personal Invitation

- The resurrection invites believers to experience Jesus as the living King.
- Challenges to move beyond seeing Jesus as a historical figure to an active presence in lives.

IV. Societal Shifts and Faith

- Addressing societal shifts away from Christian values.
- Urges believers to stand firm in faith, offering love and conviction against resistance.

V. Call to Action

- Encouragement to respond to Jesus's love and redemption with faith and commitment.
- The role of believers in sharing the message of hope and transformation.

Scriptural References

- Luke 24: Describes the discovery of the empty tomb and the initial confusion and realization among Jesus' followers that He had risen.

VI. Conclusion

- The sermon closes with a call for personal reflection on the impact of the resurrection on individual lives and the global narrative.