

Sermon Notes

I. Introduction

- Passages: Romans 11:1-7, Titus 2:11-14
- Title: Attack on Israel: Get Ready
- Key Theme: Understanding the prophetic significance of the current attacks on Israel and the importance of spiritual preparation.

II. Key Themes and Discussions

A. Israel's Prophetic Role (Romans 11)

- God's Faithfulness to Israel: Despite Israel's rejection of Christ, God has not cast away His people (Romans 11:1-2). Pastor Wes emphasizes that Israel remains central to God's plan.
- The Remnant: There is always a faithful remnant within Israel, chosen by grace, who will be saved (Romans 11:5).

B. Current Events as Fulfillment of Prophecy

- Attacks on Israel: The attacks from Hamas and Hezbollah are part of a broader spiritual and prophetic battle. Pastor Wes explains that these events fulfill what was foretold in Scripture.
- Biblical Perspective on the Conflict: He highlights the importance of viewing current events through a biblical lens, recognizing the spiritual forces at work behind the scenes.

C. The Call for Spiritual Readiness (Titus 2)

- Grace Teaches Us: Titus 2:11-12 teaches that God's grace leads us to deny ungodliness and live righteously in this present age.
- Looking for the Blessed Hope: Believers should live with an expectation of Christ's return, preparing their hearts and lives for His coming (Titus 2:13).

D. Practical Application for Believers

- Obedience and Faithfulness: Pastor Wes encourages believers to remain obedient and faithful, emphasizing that God's work in their lives will continue until the day of Christ (Philippians 1:6).
- Spiritual Preparation: As we see prophecy unfold, believers must focus on living for Christ and being ready for His return.

III. Conclusion

- Reflection: Pastor Wes urges the congregation to stay vigilant, remain in prayer, and trust God's plan, knowing that the events in Israel are part of God's larger redemptive story.

- Encouragement: Believers are called to be prepared, keeping their eyes fixed on Jesus and living in the hope of His return.
